

STOMACH ACTING UP? JUST TAKE A LITTLE PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN

Instant Relief from Indigestion, Gases, Sourness, Heartburn or Sick, Upset Stomach—Try It!

"Really does" put bad stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness in five minutes—that just that—makes Pape's Diapepsin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments into stubborn lumps, you belch gas, eructate sour, undigested food and acid; head is dizzy and aches; breath foul; tongue coated; your insides filled with bile and indigestible waste, remember the moment "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous, and the joy is its harmlessness. A large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin will give you a hundred dollars' worth of satisfaction or your druggist hands you your money back. It's worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach during the day or at night. It's the quickest, surest and most harmless stomach regulator in the world.—A.D.B.

POLI'S

Princess Jue Quong Tai, the dainty Chinese prima donna, will make her where for the past two days she had captivated large audiences by her personal charm and wonderful singing voice. The Princess has a delightful repertoire of song numbers and has scored a real personal triumph in her stay here.

Don Alfonso Zelaya, the Spanish master pianist, is another big favorite in the program with his entrancing piano recitals. Zelaya, who is the son of the deposed Nicaraguan president, is a real artist who has won his spurs on the American stage.

"Abe of the Army" is the title of a military satire that introduces a company of 10 people, including some clever comedians, a flock of pretty girls. The song numbers in this musical novelty are snappy and the offering makes a big hit.

Other attractions in the vaudeville program are The Exposition Jubilee. Four a quartet of dinky warblers who certainly can manufacture harmony; The Lester Trio—father, mother and daughter—in a farce comedy, "The Bathroom Mystery"; and the Aerobics, in a thrilling acrobatic program.

The feature photoplay "Her Debt of Honor," an original five part drama featuring Mme. Valli Valli. The story is a most unusual one and the play offers a role most fitted to the many talents of Mme. Valli Valli.

PLAZA

As "the Wolf of Wall Street" in the latest Triangle feature to be seen at the Plaza, Willard Mack has one of the most forceful roles of his career and he has made the most of all opportunities afforded him for dramatic acting in the picture.

His large, piercing eyes seem to bore through one's very soul and he is a hither and thither bringing fear to men who had heretofore felt themselves capable of inspiring rather than being inspired by others. He appears as a self-made master of men and money, one who has had to fight tooth and nail in the face of the strongest opposition from the wealthy class. He has come to despise the prattling toddlers of society who depend upon their lineage for respect and he takes every advantage to insult and humiliate them. The story of the picture is as absorbing as is the acting of Mack and audiences at the Plaza are thoroughly enjoying it.

The Keystone comedy, "Perils of the Park" is in two parts and crammed with laughable incidents from the start to the finish. Harry Gribbon, Alice Davenport and a large company of stars are featured. The vaudeville bill is diversified and of exceptional merit. It is headed by "Love's Lottery," a snappy, brightly constructed musical comedietta, with eight clever young people, including a chorus of attractively attired women. The dance numbers is an important factor in the success of the piece. Special scenic equipment and costumes also help out.

Worsley & Ashton in an offering of song and pianologue that should please the most discriminating music lovers are being enthusiastically received.

The remainder of the bill is composed of Carew & Burns in their very funny skit entitled "The Untrained Nurse" and the Princeton Girls and James in one of the finest bicycle novelties that has been seen locally in years.

EMPIRE

Cleo Madison, one of the best known of screen stars, will be seen in her latest photodramatic piece, "A Soul Enslaved," a five part Universal Broadway masterproduction of modern society which will be the featured attraction at the Empire theatre tomorrow.

In this film a number of Universal's most popular stars will be seen at their best.

Today's program is headed by the sixth episode of the aerial supreme "Graft," which unfolds a stirring story of the graft of the present commercial and the public service bureaus.

Each and every episode of this master serial is complete in itself but don't miss an episode as this serial series is without a doubt the peer of all aerial films ever produced.

"The Yellow Streak,"
At West End

Lionel Barrymore, one of the most gifted actors of the stage or screen, is starred in "A Yellow Streak," a five part feature picture released on the Metro. program to be shown here tonight at the West End Theatre on State Street, near Clinton avenue. Irene Howley, the talented and beautiful young actress, is featured with Miss Barrymore. Miss Howley has won success on both the stage and screen, appearing in the all-time hit of "The Moth and The Flame." In vaudeville she was known as "The Manhattan Girl." An excellent supporting cast appears in "A Yellow Streak," including Doris Dwyer, Niles Welch, William Cowper, and others. The production is another notable achievement of William Nigh, the well-known Metro director. Tomorrow, Blanche Sweet in "The Secret Sin," a 5 act Paramount. Tel. 2328-13.—Advertisement.

TO CONTROL WHITE PINE BLISTER BUST

Public Hearing to Be Held on Proposed Quarantine For Eastern Nursery Stock.

In order to protect the white pine forests of the country from the disease known as the white pine blister rust, it is proposed to place a Federal quarantine on shipments of 5-leaved pines and cultivated black currants from several Eastern States. A public hearing on this question will be held by the Federal Horticultural Board at the Department of Agriculture, Washington, on February 4. The States which it is proposed to quarantine are New England, New York and Pennsylvania, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York and Pennsylvania.

The white pine blister rust, like citrus blight and blight, is an imported disease which was introduced into this country on nursery stock before the passage of the Federal plant quarantine law. Ninety percent of the infections now in America came from a single German nurseries. The disease, it is said, can be controlled in the Eastern States, where it now exists, but it finds its way into the Western forests there is no

likelihood that its spread can be successfully checked. At the present time these forests are free from blister

rust and it can only be introduced into them through nursery stock of 5-leaved pines or currants. A quarantine against the relatively limited

traffic in this stock is, therefore, believed to be a necessary precaution.

As an additional safeguard, also is proposed to prohibit the entry of 5-leaved pine nursery stock from Canada and of nursery stock of currants

and gooseberries from Canada, Europe and Asia. These questions will be considered at the same hearing as the proposed domestic quarantine.

The importance of protecting the white pine forests from the blister rust may be inferred from the fact that in New England, New York and Pennsylvania alone there are still 15

billion feet of mature white pine valued at not less than $75,000,000, and in the Lake States 12 billion feet valued at $96,000,000. In the enormous forests of the West the white pine and sugar pine are among the most valuable trees. At a conservative es-
